Newsletter #47 First Quarter 2011

Thank you for praying for Loved By Jesus School staffing needs. Nothing is easy in Ghana but God has provided all of our needs according to His glorious riches in Christ Jesus. We have some very special new staff members. A very welcome blessing is that some of our previous school staff periodically return to help us raise up the new staff.

A February afternoon at LBJS, Odumase-Krobo, Ghana

As we requested in last quarter's CCMI Newsletter, we ask that you continue to:

"... pray that the Holy One would redeem and bring enduring, holy revival to this difficult part of the world know as the Kroboland."

God is clearly at work in response to your prayers.

For such a time as this, God is raising up CCMI to provide opportunities for those he is calling.

For instance, a 16 year veteran missionary who has recently been called to serve in Africa stated to CCMI: "I appreciate you and could not operate here without you". He brings a passionate message of repentance and victory over sin. Here are excerpts from an interview with this dear Brother:

Our beloved gardener praying with us

I just believe that God has a plan here and we've got to endure the hardship...

I have to continually remind myself that these people need Jesus. They need the real gospel. Because if the preachers are not preaching the gospel, if they're not living the gospel, then the sheep are not hearing the real gospel.

In the gospel according to the Bible people have to turn away from their sins.

...it is very difficult here like butting my head against a stone wall. But I have to believe that there is going to be, there'll be a break through.

Our 2011 projects include providing larger and better classrooms for our growing Pre-primary classes and building an enclosed kitchen at the school.

Declared at the UK's recent Royal wedding: "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire"

Lord, help CCMI to stay focused on "Seeking first the kingdom of God with Christians globally". Loving you with all of our hearts and loving our neighbors. Proclaiming and living the Gospel. In Jesus Name. Amen
