

Christ's Co-Mission International

June - July 2005 Newsletter

Friends & Partners, Great is God's faithfulness and His mercies are new every morning. It is an honor to participate with Him in the work of the Kingdom – touching lives for eternity's sake. We hope that CCMI is an encouragement to you to be further used of God in your families, churches, communities and unto the ends of the earth.

Some of what God is doing at our affiliate in West Africa is expressed here in recent photos:

Encouraging and coordinating Loved By Jesus School parents

Promoting hygiene

Sharing Truth from God's Word

Constructing an outhouse and garden fencing

Outreach to villages - some wrought with pagan idols

Providing wholesome recreation at LBJS

So many of you have prayed and participated in a wide variety of ways. God bless you.
